A Book: Of Sex and Little Else carries the reader back and forth through time as it chronicles the author's wildly unorthodox life. Through vibrant narration and colorful commentary, this nonfiction memoir offers a little bit of adventure and a whole lot of fun in a coming-of-age tale with a few glaring modern twists. Incorporating elements of mystery and intrigue, her story discloses the course of a scandalous affair with a prominent public Vancouver personality who may just have himself one shocking kink. Graphic content. Parental discretion advised.

Drop your hang ups

By DDUB

This book is for those of you who realize there is more to life than what we are told is acceptable... It's for those of us that realize that our existence is fleeting and therefor should not be lived by rule of social norms... Unfortunately, for the writer, these lessons were learned through hardship and misfortune... it's a fantastic read! The sexual depiction will stir even the most A-sexual of people, and the story of coming of age will tug at the heart stings of coldest of souls.

Shockingly Honest & Amazing

By Charlene

This book has been my favourite way to procrastinate homework these past two days, and I've already finished reading. It pulled me in all directions- I felt sadness, shock, laughter...I just couldn't put it down. This book is a (sometimes brutally) honest recount of the author's life, and a reader can't help but root for this strong young woman to make it through all that she does. So much more than sex, this book is a must-read!

Crazy, amazing book

By T54231

This book is flipping unreal. It is so much more than just sex. You will laugh, cry, cringe, smile, frown and hope. Amazing, amazing, amazing... Buy this book and enjoy!
