Bundt Cake Bliss

By Susan D. Lucas

I've only made one recipe from this book, which was a "from scratch" one. It was wonderful! Not every recipe uses a boxed mix, but some do.

This book includes non-cake recipes that utilize the bundt cake pan, which is a nice addition. They have savory recipes, quick breads, and molded salads as well as cake recipes.

If you like to bake from mixes

By Joe Foster

It's an attractive cookbook but the majority of the recipes in it are based on cake mixes and or instant pudding mixes etc which I don't use. So far I've only tried the pear cake which I adjusted back to a scratch cake. It was heavenly so my feelings about this cookbook are a bit mixed. There are some tempting recipes here to be explored but be prepared to reverse engineer them or to buy a lot of cake mix.
