EXTREMELY WELL DONE BOOK

By A Customer

this book was the one i read first from the give yourself goosebumps series - and i loved it!!

In ordinary books you can follow the plot by simply turning over the pages - but in this book you decide by yourself how the plot developes. If you make wrong decision you'll get into trouble.

you and your friends visit a carnival full of games and rides, when you suddenly recognize that it's doomed: you have to get out until midnight or you'll be trapped there 4ever!! Your first task is to decide whether you play games (if you win 3 games and an ultimate challenge against the cranival manager you'll get free) or to try to escape by using the rides.

it makes pretty much fun to read the different ways to go. and i cant understand anyone saying that this book is commercial...???!!! the story gets never boring, on none of the 140 pages. there are 2 older goosebumps books mentioned in this book, but who cares, it doesn't disturb the excellent story.

if you like goosebumps and give yourself goosebumps i really recommend this book to you. it isn't scary in deed, but that doesnt matter - it's pretty exciting and very funny to read!!

R.L. Stine is in the house!

By A Customer

WOW!!!! R.L. Stine is at his best! Sure, the old books were great, but now, you get to choose you're own story! This is sure to be a prosperous new series! Also, if you've read a lot of the books from the regular series, then you'll know the right choices to make on some of the decisions. Well, goodbye now, and good luck in The Carnival of Horrors! (You'll need it!!!!)

Can you escape?

By Tanner Bucket

This is a great book. I stayed up late trying to read all the endings. They're all sooooo cool! This also features some familiar Goosebumps characters & other scary things. These include: Slappy the Dummy, Monster Blood, and many things from Horrorland. So, what are you waiting for?! Pick up the book and try to escape the Carnival of Horrors (in one piece that is).
