More good stuff by May

By tony sneed

I have read two other books by Rollo May, Addiction and Grace and The Springs of Creative Living (not an easy book to find though). May is the best author I've found so far that helps me spiritually. The only book that compares is "The People of the Lie" by Scott Peck. I am a new reader though, so I'm still searching. I find this book spiritually nourishing. It helps me live my life better by applying some of his principles. May keeps pointing out that I'm the problem and not others. How can I keep improving myself? May doesn't write fluff. He's to the point and practical. I'd recommend any of the three May books I've mentioned. They are all equally enjoyable.

Classic and classy book for all in the profession of counseling

By Joe Baroody

A classic book that reminds us of the nature of humanity and how counselors can best respond to human need and suffering.
