A horrific and mystifying pandemic has struck Earth, almost completely destroying the male population of the human species-and the female population quickly takes control of political power in every nation. But the "Matriarchs" are far more interested in revenge for the mistreatment they endured under their former societies than the preservation of the species. They set about designing a bloodthirsty tournament, forcing the surviving males to fight each other to the death until only one remains. Two hundred years later, The Matriarchy has fine-tuned the rules of this contest: Now, every decade or so, one young male from every nation is chosen to "participate" in a Battle Royale. The last man standing wins and as a prize is offered one wish. Each contestant goes into battle with a harem of "brides" by his side. Participants have to fight each other and the environment in a deadly struggle for survival, with the last remaining survivor and his harem being declared the winner. It is in this environment that young Alex Dolorean must fight for his life and loved ones in the deadly Battle Royale known as...The Harem Games. (Not recommended for young children.)

Fun Read

By Rebecca Bryant

First off let me say this book was a lot fun to read. Not only did I enjoy the futuristic appeal of it but also the excitement of all the action. I adored the main character Alex because he was very unique and different from normal heroes. I may even have a small imaginary crush on him. I also liked the chemistry between all the characters. Plus the story was petty good. I liked all the twist and turns the book took.

What I wasn't happy with was it sort of read like another popular book we have all read or heard of HG. For me it was like the author wrote the book while watching the movie. That said it really was a good book and I did enjoy it and I am looking forward to the next installment and hope I get to read it. Overall a good book and a relatively quick read. Something you can enjoy on a weekend at home.
