I am disappointed with this book

By Lyublyana Stoyanova

Honestly, I am disappointed with this book. The best way to describe it is unbalanced. Before purchasing it, I had good knowledge of Persian grammar, and from this point of view the book is really easy for me, with very few useful grammar drills to practice what I already knew. At the same time, the book is heavy on vocabulary, but the majority of new words are not in the glossary which also lacks phonetics. I basically spend hours in looking up words in the dictionary. Another downside to this book is the lack of text to give context to the vocabulary. I am giving three stars only because I consider this textbook useful for building on vocabulary, that is if I have patience to go past lesson two.
